Infojini Code of Conduct Policy

Infojini Inc. has always strived to achieve the highest ethical standards in its conduct of business. The company's reputation and goodwill are recognized and valued as its most important asset, which warrants the faith and trust of its various stakeholders. This Code of Conduct is designed to formally put these corporate values of Infojini into practice. The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to articulate high standards of honesty, integrity, ethical and law-abiding behavior expected of all employees while also meeting the requirements of external stakeholders and applicable laws.

1. Scope

The Code of Conduct is applicable to all employees of Infojini. It is also applicable to all suppliers, consultants, agents, sales representatives, distributors and independent contractors working with Infojini for any specified period. In essence, anyone representing Infojini or working on the Company's behalf is expected to act consistently with the Code.

2. Responsibilities under the Code

i. Responsibility of Employees: It is the responsibility of each employee to be aware of and abide by the code of conduct elucidated in this document. Additionally, all employees also have the responsibility of behaving/acting in an ethical manner compliant with the applicable laws of the land. Further, each employee is responsible for reporting any violations of the code they observe within the company to the appropriate authority.

ii. Responsibility of Managers: In addition to the above, Managers have an additional responsibility to drive a culture of integrity, honesty, ethics, and law-abiding behavior among other employees in the organization.

Towards this end, they are expected to be a role model of the behaviors expected of employees, reinforce the code of conduct as part of regular employee communication, and encourage employees to report violations of the Code and guard against taking retaliatory action against someone for making a good faith report.

Code of Conduct

3.1. Code of Personal Conduct

i. Honesty & Integrity

All employees are expected to demonstrate the highest standards of honesty and integrity in their conduct at all time while representing Infojini and conducting business on behalf of Infojini. Towards this end, every employee is required to be straightforward and honest in their professional and business relationships, be truthful about the services provided, the knowledge possessed, and experience gained.

ii. Respect for All

All employees are expected to demonstrate respect and trustworthy behavior in their dealings with other employees as well as external stakeholders.

iii. Team Spirit

All employees are expected to uphold the spirit of teamwork and ensure that the best interest of the team and Company prevails at all times.

iv. Substance Abuse

All employees are expected to maintain a drug-free environment at workplace and refrain from substance abuse of any form while performing duty. Employees are also prohibited from possessing or encouraging others to use controlled substances.

3.2 Code of Conduct towards Employees

v. Equal Opportunities for Employment

Infojini is an equal opportunity provider and does not discriminate against any person because of their gender, caste, religion, age (within statutory limits), marital status, nationality, ancestry, ethnicity, geographical origin, sexual orientation, disability or any other trait protected by law, with respect to any terms of employment such as hiring, promotion, transfer, compensation & benefits, career development opportunities, etc. It is expected that managers shall take employment related decisions based only on the merit of the person and not discriminate against any person because of their personal characteristics/traits

ii. Workplace Free of Harassment

Infojini recognizes and respects the right of every employee to a harassment free workplace. Hence, employees are expected to ensure a healthy, safe and conducive work environment that is free from harassment of any kind or form.

Towards this, employees are prohibited from indulging in harassment of any kind or form - whether physical, verbal, psychological, or sexual in nature. This includes all types of unwelcome, offensive, demeaning and intimidating behaviors, whether explicit or implicit.

The Company sets a standard of 'zero tolerance' for harassment. We are all responsible for ensuring that we avoid actions or behavior that are, or could be, viewed as harassment.

The Company views all incidents of 'sexual harassment', very seriously and encourage employees to report any incidents of sexual harassment to the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) known as Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Committee formed under Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prohibition, prevention, and Redressal) Act, 2013. The Company management may initiate strict disciplinary action against employee found guilty of any kind of sexual harassment.

iii. Workplace Free from Violence

Infojini will not tolerate workplace violence in any form either within premises or outside where company related activities are carried out. Employees are expected to not indulge in workplace violence. They must not encourage others towards it as well. Employees are also prohibited from possessing weapons or dangerous items at workplace or outside while conducting business activities.

iv. Open-door Communication

Infojini believes that the work environment should be free from any kind of bureaucracy and all employees must have access to other employees regardless of their position or influence in the company. All managers are expected to foster an open-door culture at the workplace.

v. Prohibition of Child Labour

Infojini strictly prohibits the employment of child labour. All employees at Infojini responsible for hiring are required to ensure that this principle is upheld.

vi. Environment, Health & Safety

Infojini is committed to provide its employees a safe, healthy, and ergonomically sound working environment. The company will take all possible measures to ensure health and safety of its employees.

Safety at workplace is also every employee's responsibility. All employees and visitors to the workplace must comply with safety norms/policies/standards as prescribed by the company and applicable law. All employees must ensure that no unsafe act is committed at workplace. Employees must also undertake all possible measures to eliminate any unsafe condition as soon as they become aware of it.

If an employee witnesses any unsafe act or unsafe condition, they should report the matter to relevant authorities at the earliest.

vii. Personal Information Privacy

Infojini is committed to protecting personal information that is shared by employees during the course of employment, consistent with applicable data privacy laws, including the rules surrounding the collection, processing, use, transfer and disclosure of personal information.

viii. Confidential Information

Unless required by law or authorized by their management, employees shall not disclose confidential information or allow such disclosure. The obligation continues beyond the termination of agreement. Employees must use their best efforts to avoid unintentional disclosure by applying special care when storing or transmitting confidential information.

ix. Human Rights

Infojini recognizes the importance of maintaining and promoting fundamental human rights in all of our operations and throughout our supply chain, our values, codes and employment policies work together to support the principles contained in UN Universal declarations of human rights and the International Labour Organizations' fundamental principles and labour standards.

We operate under the program and policies that: -

- Provide fair and equitable wages, benefits and other conditions of employment
- Are in accordance with local laws
- Provide humane and safe working conditions
- Prohibit all forms of forced and compulsory labour or child labour
- Promote workplace free of discrimination and harassment

We expect our suppliers and business partners to uphold these principles as well and not be complicit in human rights abuse.

3.3. Code of Conduct towards Customers
